Avocado Fries with Creamy Chipotle Dipping Sauce

(P) (Q) (V) (GF)

SERVES 6. HANDS-ON TIME: 25 MINUTES. TOTAL TIME: 45 MINUTES.

Yes, you can make fries out of heart-healthy avocados! These wedges can be baked or fried in advance, then heated up on game day.

FRIES

- ½ cup almond flour
- ¼ cup coconut flour
- 1 tsp sea salt
- ½ tsp each garlic powder and paprika
- ¼ tsp each onion powder and ground black pepper
- 1 large egg, beaten
- 3 avocados

DIP

- ⅓ cup avocado oil mayonnaise
- 1 tbsp fresh lime juice
- ¼ tsp chipotle chile powder
- ⅛ tsp sea salt

1. Make fries: Preheat oven to 450°F. Line a large baking sheet with parchment. In a medium bowl, combine almond and coconut flours, salt, garlic powder, paprika, onion powder and pepper. Place egg in a separate small bowl.

2. Halve and pit avocados. Cut each half into 4 to 6 wedges. Dip one wedge in egg then dredge in flour mixture and place on baking sheet. Repeat with remaining avocado, egg and flour mixture. Mist fries with cooking spray and bake until golden, 15 to 18 minutes, turning over and misting with cooking spray halfway through.

3. Meanwhile, make dip: Combine all ingredients in a small bowl. Serve fries with dipping sauce on the side.

NOTE: Alternatively, cook the fries in a skillet. Pour avocado oil in a medium nonstick skillet until ½ inch deep and heat on medium. Working in 3 batches, cook until golden, 1 to 2 minutes per side. If serving immediately, keep warm in a 200°F oven on a metal rack set over a baking sheet while cooking remaining slices. Make them in advance and simply heat them up before serving on game day.

Buffalo Chicken Twice-Baked Potatoes

GF

SERVES 8.

HANDS-ON TIME: 25 MINUTES.

TOTAL TIME: 1 HOUR, 25 MINUTES.

- 4 Russet potatoes,
scrubbed and dried

- 1 tbsp avocado oil

RANCH DRESSING

- ½ cup avocado oil mayonnaise
- 2 tbsp plain unsweetened
almond milk
- 1 tbsp fresh lemon juice
- 2 tsp dried parsley
- 1½ tsp dried dill
- ½ tsp coconut aminos
- ½ tsp garlic powder
- ¼ tsp onion powder
- ⅛ tsp ground black pepper

FILLING

- 3 tbsp ghee, divided
- 1 lb boneless, skinless
chicken thighs, patted dry, trimmed, cut into
1-inch pieces
- sea salt and ground black pepper, to taste
- ¾ cup hot sauce
- 2 ribs celery, thinly sliced
- 1 green onion, thinly sliced

1. Preheat oven to 350°F. Rub potatoes with oil and prick all over with a fork. Place on a baking sheet and roast until very tender, about 1 hour to 1 hour, 30 minutes (depending on size of potatoes).

2. Meanwhile, prepare dressing: In a medium bowl, whisk all ingredients together in a bowl. Thin with additional water if dressing is too thick, whisking in 1 tsp at a time. (MAKE AHEAD: Dressing can be made up to 2 days in advance; keep covered and refrigerated. Whisk before serving.)

3. Prepare filling: Warm 1 tbsp ghee in a large skillet over medium heat. Add chicken to skillet, season with salt and pepper and cook, stirring occasionally, until golden and cooked through, 8 to 10 minutes. Using a slotted spoon, transfer chicken to a cutting board; finely chop. Return to skillet, reduce heat to medium-low and add hot sauce and remaining 2 tbsp ghee; stir until well combined. Remove from heat.

4. Slice potatoes in half lengthwise. Scoop flesh into a large bowl, leaving enough flesh inside potato skins so they hold their shape. Mash potato flesh with a fork. Add chicken and sauce from skillet and mix to combine well with potato flesh. Taste and season with salt and pepper, if needed. Scoop mixture back into skins. Bake until heated through, about 15 to 20 minutes.

5. Drizzle potatoes with ranch dressing and top with celery and green onions.

Salt & Vinegar Potato Chips

V GF

SERVES 4 TO 6.

HANDS-ON TIME: 25 MINUTES.

TOTAL TIME: 1 HOUR, 5 MINUTES.

Soaking potato slices in apple cider vinegar adds a light acidic note to these purple potato chips without the chemical aftertaste you often get from store-bought varieties. If you like a stronger acidic punch, simply soak them longer.

14 oz purple or Russet potatoes, scrubbed and cut into 1/16-inch slices with a mandoline

1 cup apple cider vinegar, or as needed

2 tbsp olive oil

1½ tsp sea salt

1. Preheat oven to 400°F.

2. In a bowl, submerge potato slices in vinegar. Soak for 15 to 30 minutes; drain and wipe out bowl. (NOTE: Soaking for 15 minutes yields a mild vinegar flavor, if you prefer a bigger acidic punch, soak for 30 minutes.)

3. Lay slices flat on paper towel, pat dry. Transfer to bowl; toss slices with oil and salt. Line 2 large baking sheets with parchment paper and lay potato slices flat, ensuring they are not overlapping.

4. Bake for 8 minutes, flip over, and bake for 3 to 5 minutes more, until chips are crispy and edges are slightly browned. Transfer chips to racks to cool. Arrange remaining potato slices on sheets and repeat baking process.

Creamy Kale Dip with Za'atar Pita Chips

Q V

SERVES 4. HANDS-ON TIME: 20 MINUTES. TOTAL TIME: 30 MINUTES.

A sprinkling of Za'atar, an aromatic Middle Eastern blend of herbs and spices, gives these baked pita chips addictive flavor without the need for a ton of oil or salt. Be sure to let the dip sit in the fridge for a couple of hours before serving – this softens the kale and mellows out its bitterness. You can also serve with vegetables for dipping.

DIP

- 1 cup plain whole-milk Greek yogurt
- ½ cup finely chopped stemmed kale
- 2 tbsp each finely chopped fresh chives and flat-leaf parsley
- 1 tbsp fresh lemon juice
- 1 small clove garlic, crushed
- ½ tsp sea salt
- ¼ tsp ground black pepper
- Pinch ground cayenne pepper

PITA CHIPS

- 2 6-inch whole-grain pitas
  - 2 tbsp extra-virgin olive oil
  - 2 tsp Za'atar seasoning blend
  - Pinch sea salt
- 1. Prepare pita chips: Preheat oven to 350°F. Line a large rimmed baking sheet with parchment paper.
  - 2. Using kitchen scissors or a sharp knife, split pitas horizontally through centers to make 4 thin pitas total. Brush both sides of each piece with oil; cut each into 6 triangles to make

24 pieces total. Arrange in a single layer on prepared baking sheet. Sprinkle with Za'atar and salt. Bake until crisp, tossing halfway, 15 to 20 minutes. (TIP: Let cool completely; store in an airtight container for up to 2 days.)

3. Meanwhile, in a large bowl, stir together all dip ingredients until well combined. Cover and refrigerate for at least 2 hours, or up to 3 to 4 days.

Instant Pot Beef Chili with Buttermilk Jalapeño Corn Bread

F IP

SERVES 4. HANDS-ON TIME: 25 MINUTES. TOTAL TIME: 1 HOUR, 10 MINUTES.

An electric pressure cooker makes great chili in a snap, and it can also bake up delicious corn bread at the same time. When cooked, the top of the corn bread will appear pale, but the bottom will be golden brown – just invert it onto a serving plate for the best presentation.

- 2 tbsp olive oil, divided
- 1 lb lean ground beef
- 1 large yellow onion, chopped
- 2 cups low-sodium beef broth
- 1 15-oz BPA-free can unsalted kidney beans, drained and rinsed
- 1 14.5-oz BPA-free can unsalted diced tomatoes, with juices
- ¼ cup unsalted chile powder blend (aka chili powder)
- 2 tbsp unsalted tomato paste
- 1 tbsp ground cumin
- 1 tbsp chopped canned chipotle pepper in adobo
- ¾ cup fine-ground yellow cornmeal
- ¾ cup whole-wheat pastry flour
- 1 tsp each baking powder and baking soda
- ¼ tsp sea salt
- ½ cup whole-milk buttermilk
- 2 large eggs
- 2 tbsp raw honey
- 2 tbsp chopped jalapeño chile pepper, optional
- ½ red bell pepper, finely chopped
- ½ cup shredded cheddar cheese

1. Press Sauté on Instant Pot and set to More/High; heat 1 tbsp oil. Add beef and onion. Cook, stirring occasionally, until meat is cooked through and onions are tender, 15 minutes. (TIP: Don't break up meat too much; larger chunks add texture.) Press Cancel. Using heat-resistant gloves, lift inner pot and pour beef mixture into a colander to drain fat.

2. Return inner pot to Instant Pot. Add broth, scraping up any brown bits from bottom. Add beef and onion mixture. Add beans, tomatoes, chile powder blend, tomato paste, cumin and chipotle; stir to combine.

3. Place a trivet (with 2-inch legs) over chili mixture in pot. Spray a 7-inch round metal dish (about 3 inches tall) with cooking spray. In a medium bowl, whisk together cornmeal, flour, baking powder, baking soda and salt. In a separate medium bowl, whisk together buttermilk, egg, honey and remaining 1 tbsp oil. Stir in jalapeño (if using) and bell pepper. Fold wet mixture into dry mixture until just combined. Fold in cheddar cheese. Pour batter into prepared dish, cover tightly with foil and place over trivet. Lock lid and set release valve to Seal. Press Pressure and set to More/High; adjust cooking time to 25 minutes.

4. Let pressure naturally release for 10 minutes (don't move the vent), then carefully set release valve to Venting. When metal pin in lid falls and all pressure is released, unlock lid. Using heat-resistant gloves or sturdy tongs, remove corn bread from pot. Run a knife along edge of dish then carefully invert onto a plate. Serve chili with optional toppings and corn bread.

Cheddar Cornbread Jalapeño Poppers Q V

SERVES 20.

HANDS-ON TIME: 45 MINUTES

TOTAL TIME: 1 HOUR, 5 MINUTES

Jalapeño poppers are generally laden with cheese, breaded and deep-fried – not exactly a clean snack! We reduced the cheese and mixed it into a baked cornbread batter. Serve them with your favorite salsa and a bit of sour cream. When handling several hot chile peppers as you do here, it might be helpful to use gloves.

- 20 jalapeño chile peppers
- 1 cup spelt flour or whole-wheat flour
- 1 cup cornmeal, finely ground
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 1 tsp each sea salt and ancho chile powder
- ½ tsp ground cumin
- ¾ cup plain full-fat yogurt
- ¼ cup egg whites
- 3 tbsp raw honey
- ⅓ cup fresh cilantro sprigs, chopped
- 3 green onions, thinly sliced (about ⅓ cup)
- 1¼ cups shredded cheddar cheese, divided
- ⅓ cup sour cream, optional
- ⅓ cup all-natural jarred salsa, optional

1. Preheat oven to 400°F.

2. Wearing gloves, cut stem end off each jalapeño and discard. Cut peppers in half lengthwise and, using a small paring knife or a teaspoon, carefully cut or scoop out seeds and discard. Place peppers cut side up on a parchment-lined baking sheet; set aside. (NOTE: Most of the heat in a jalapeño pepper is in the seeds. By removing the seeds, we're left with a flavorful pepper with a great little kick.)

3. In a medium-size bowl, whisk together flour, cornmeal, baking powder, salt, chile powder and cumin; set aside.

4. In a separate bowl, whisk together yogurt, egg whites and honey. Add yogurt mixture, plus cilantro, green onions and 1 cup cheese to dry ingredients and mix well until just combined.

5. Spoon about 2 tsp mixture into the center of each jalapeño half. Smooth tops of mixture and place jalapeños back onto baking sheet, filling side up.

6. Bake for 10 minutes. Remove from oven, sprinkle stuffed jalapeños with remaining ¼ cup cheese and continue to bake for 2 more minutes or until top is golden brown and cheese is melted. 2 tsp	ancho chile powder (or other mild chile powder)	2 tsp	each onion powder, mustard powder and paprika
2 tsp	ground cumin	⅛ to
1 tsp	ground black pepper	¼ tsp	ground cayenne pepper, optional
¾ tsp	sea salt, divided		Zest of 1 lemon
3½-lb	bone-in pork shoulder, trimmed of fat, at room temperature	¾ cup	plain full-fat Greek yogurt
1½ cups	unsalted tomato sauce	2 tbsp	raw honey
½ tsp	potato starch	1 tbsp	poppy seeds
¾ cup	+ 2 tbsp apple cider vinegar, divided	1 large	carrot, peeled and shredded ( NOTE: Shred using the shredding disk on a food processor or using the large holes on a box grater.)
6 tbsp	Sucanat	1 large	zucchini, trimmed and shredded
1 tbsp	Worcestershire sauce	¼ head	red cabbage, cored and thinly sliced (about 1½ cups)
		10	whole-wheat buns or kaiser rolls

1. In a small bowl, combine chile powder, cumin, black pepper and ½ tsp salt. Rub all over pork. Mist a large, heavy skillet with cooking spray and heat on medium-high. Add pork and cook without moving until browned, 2 to 3 minutes. Turn pork and repeat until all sides are browned. Transfer to slow cooker. Add 1 cup water, cover and cook on low for 5 to 7 hours, or until meat easily separates from the bone and internal temperature reaches 145°F on an instant-read thermometer. Let pork rest in slow cooker, uncovered, for 20 minutes.

2. While pork rests, prepare sauce: In a small saucepan, whisk tomato sauce and potato starch until smooth. Add ¾ cup vinegar, Sucanat, Worcestershire, onion powder, mustard powder, paprika, cayenne (if using) and remaining ¼ tsp salt; whisk to combine. Turn heat on stove top to high and bring to a simmer, whisking occasionally. Reduce heat to medium-low and simmer, whisking frequently, until flavors blend, about 5 minutes. Remove from heat and cover to keep warm.

3. Prepare coleslaw: In a large bowl, stir together lemon zest, yogurt, honey, poppy seeds and remaining 2 tbsp vinegar until combined. Place grated carrot and zucchini on two layers of paper towel (or use a clean kitchen towel) and press down firmly with additional paper towels to absorb as much water as possible. Transfer to bowl with yogurt mixture. Add cabbage and stir until combined.

4. Transfer pork to a work surface and shred pork with 2 forks, discarding any fat. Transfer to a large serving bowl, add about three-quarters of the sauce and toss well with tongs. Add additional sauce, to taste, or reserve for another use. Add ¾ cup pork and about ½ cup coleslaw to each bun.
